Q.1) Read the passage and answer the questions that follow:

Buddhism is a world religion. People who follow this religion are called Buddhist. Buddhism grew from the teachings of Prince Siddhartha Gautama. He is known as the Buddha which means 'The enlightened one' –the one who found truth.

Gautama Buddha was born over 2500 years ago in Nepal. Even though he was a prince, he gave up all his riches. He became a travelling preacher. The Buddhist teachings were written down in a book called Triptika. Buddhist monks and Buddhist followers study these writings. They aim to be kind and peaceful and always do the right thing.

There are about 300 million Buddhist all over the world. Most live in Asia. Buddhists pray and meditate at home or in temples. They also make offerings of fruits, flowers and incense. An important Buddhist festival is Buddha's birthday.
